

One Section
6 Pages
This Issue

MUTT AND JEFF

The Flagpole Sitters

By BUD FISHER

Copyright, 1931—by H. C. Fisher, Trade Mark Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.
Great Britain Rights Reserved

5c PER COPY

ING AIRED IN BOUND OVER

Makes Incoherent ing He Will defense

at and rambling sentences attorney and others in a the only defense made by yesterday afternoon here to commit murder. The y light shed by Osborne's ements concerning his erted shooting of Albert llo, Walteria, last Thurs- afternoon, was an indd- on that he may plead -defense in the Superior irt.

Osborne was bound over to higher court on $5000 yesterday following a liminary examination that ted at the city court mber, moved to Mallo's he and back again.

Slim Chance To Live

he victim of the shooting, ch occurred in his home 24424 Los Codona street, reported still in a critical dition at the County hos- l. Late reports from that itution indicate that Mallo' only a fighting chance live. He was shot in the nach.

Osborne was taken to the nty jail to await trial last at. His wife, who had a held here as a material ress, was released. The part of Osborne's volun- statement on the wit- stand that had a bear- on the case concerned a eat, asserted by the pris- to have been made by lo several days before he shot. Osborne declared to threatened to kill him e (Mallo) ever saw Os- ne about his home again.

Repeats Statement

estimony was taken at Mallo's bedside because was unable to come to rt. Mrs. Mallo, who car- mail for Walteria and os Verdes out of Redondo, injured in an automo- accident recently. She, ated her statement given police the day after the otting.

he story of the asserted nderous attempt, written rly after the affair, fol- s:

Assault Story Told

ou'll never tell any more lies t me!" ith that statement, Leo Frd rne, 31, Walteria, is asserted ave struck Albert Mallo, 50, of Walteria, across the with a .38 calibre revolver shot him once in the abdomen Thursday afternoon at Mallo's on Los Codona street. e shooting took place in the ination front room and bed- where Mrs. Christine Mallo lying, a victim of an auto- le accident in the Palos es hills, October 9. Mrs. o, still critically ill, was an witness to the alleged crime.

Denied Ownership of Gun

lthin half an hour after the ed assault, Osborne was ar- d at his home by Special er W. K. Adolph. He claimed e did not even own a re- er, but a pistol with a broken le, as described by Mr. e Osborne, 29, his wife, was d by Police Chief Calder w it had evidently been con- d under an outhouse in the rne yard. The gun is being as evidence in the case. s. Osborne, who told a story onflicts with Mrs. Mallo's witness account, was arrested

(Continued on Page 6-A)